German Forces On Soviet Front Cease Assaults

Moscow Reports Losses Of Nazis Halt Their Assaults In Kuban Area

RED DEFENDERS STANDING FIRM

By NATALIA RENE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

MOSCOW, April 26.—Soviet defenders of the western Caucasus today consolidated their positions as German forces, weak from serious losses inflicted on them during the past two weeks, failed to renew their assaults on Russian Kuban strongholds.

Soviet positions were improved yesterday after bitter artillery, machine-gun and rifle duels, but the Nazis did not attempt infantry or armored assaults.

Mass For Attack

To the south, Soviet forces were reported to be massing for a breakthrough into the Axis-held Black Sea port of Novorossiysk. The official German news agency DNB admitted that positions of the German defenders in hills surrounding the port are seriously menaced. The Soviet command communiqué made no mention of this front, however.

On the central front northwest of Moscow, 70 Nazis troops were wiped out when a Soviet reconnaissance unit broke into German trenches. South of Beloklava, another 100 Germans were killed when the Russians repelled German infantry attacks. Soviet artillery scattered the remainder of the attacking column, the noon communiqué said.

In the Belgorod area, Soviet artillery batteries destroyed six German blockhouses and dugouts and blew up an ammunition dump. In another sector of the same front, a company of enemy infantry was annihilated when the Nazis attempted to reconquer Soviet fortifications.

Planes Shot Down

The German radio said Soviet forces made "several strong preparatory attempts" on the Volynskiy front, south of Leningrad. All attempts were repulsed, the broadcast claimed.

Eighteen German planes were shot down in the sector during the day and Russian airmen scored direct hits on Nazi planes on the

Another of the inequities of the along the fishing streams of the county many Ohio cars are to be seen this season. This reveals that Ohioans have plenty of gasoline to come over into Pennsylvania while local fishermen are not allowed gasoline for such expeditions.

Quite a large delegation of soldiers from the Shenango camp

no rain until evening, and balmy weather prevailed during the day, although the sun did not shine strongly.

American Forces May Be Spearhead In Tunisia Drive

EDITOR'S NOTE: The battle of Tunisia, with its relation to the air invasion of Europe and the Soviet battle in Russia, is discussed in the following article by Major Paul S. Ra-borg, noted military analyst and author of "Mechanized Might."

By MAJOR PAUL S. RABORG
Written Especially for International News Service

NEW YORK, April 26.—The shift in position of General Patton's American troops to the north end of the Tunisia fighting line is most significant. If they remain in their present position it appears they will be the spearhead that will drive between and separate the Axis troops which are in Bizerte and Tunis.

It should be noted that, since

General Montgomery's latest assault in the south at Enfidaville, all of the Allied gains have been short and at the price of heavy fighting.
As has been stated before, the present squeeze attack by the United Nations is the commencement of the final phase of the battle of Tunisia. But it must be remembered that unless there is a complete collapse of the Axis troops, the fighting will be more desperate and more costly in both men and material than any which has heretofore occurred in North Africa.

May Become Siege

All of the present combat is, in reality, probably attacks against the Axis line of outposts. It is doubtful if the main German and Italian defenses have as yet been reached by showed a little increase over the

the quota of $5,250,000 asked. It is understood that the government now expects the nation to subscribe asked. For this would mean an increase of approximately $400,000 for

Yanks Shoot Down Five Jap Planes In Battle Over China

Outnumbered American Fighters Defeat Japanese In Clash Over Hunan

By JOHN W. JARRELL
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE AMERICAN AIR FORCE IN CHINA, April 26.—Outnumbered two to one, American Warhawk fighters Saturday shot down five Japanese fighters and probably destroyed another four enemy planes in blazing dogfights near an American airfield in Hunan Province.

According to information reaching the U. S. air force headquarters today, there were no American losses, although one Warhawk was damaged slightly.

Capt. John Hampshire of Grant's Pass, Ore., became this war theater's leading ace when he shot down two of the Jap raiders, bring his score to eight destroyed enemy ships.

The battle was joined when 25
Jap fighters approached the American field and were intercepted by half as many P-40s.

In two air battles over Hunan this month, the Japs have lost 12 planes confirmed and probably another 16
American losses were one plane.

Two More Coal Strikes Develop

PITTSBURGH, April 26.—Two more strikes broke out in Southwestern Pennsylvania's soft coal field today as tension mounted in the wage contract dispute among John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers, the Appalachian Operators association and the war labor board.

Latest mines to go down were the Vesta No. 4 at California, and the Vesta No. 5 at Vestaburg, both owned and operated by Jones & Laughlin Steel corporation. Both are in Washington county and have a total payroll of 2500 men. Both are "captive" mines.

The new shutdowns raised the total of idle miners to more than 5500 in the Southwestern Pennsylvania field.

The strikes, so far, have been neither authorized nor condemned by UMW Chief Lewis, or other mine union officials.

R. A. F. Bombers Renew Attacks

Roar Over English Channel Headed For France And Germany

LONDON, April 26.—Royal Air Force bombers roared over the English Channel in strength during the night, indicating a resumption of the aerial war against Hitler's European fortresses.

Observers on England's east coast reported that big British warbirds crossed the seacoast headed for France shortly before midnight.

The renewed aerial activity came after a lull of several days in the wake of last week's round-the-clock offensive against military targets on the continent.

Easter Sunday was a day of rest for RAF and American airmen, but the air ministry announced that British bombers and fighters attacked Axis rail targets and inland shipping objectives in France and Belgium Saturday.

Whirlwind fighter-bombers and fighter planes destroyed three barges and two lockgates near the French channel port of Calais and two locomotives in Belgium. Eight barges, three trains and a bridge also were damaged in sweeps over Belgium.

Two British planes failed to return from the sorties over the continent, a communiqué announced.

At dusk Saturday, speedy Mosquito bombers attacked rail targets, workshops and other industrial objectives in Western Germany. All planes returned from the mission to Germany.

Relations With Finland Now Hang By Slender Thread

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Diplomatic relations between the United States and Finland today hung by a slender thread.

With all but one diplomatic representative withdrawn from the American legation in Helsinki, the United States Government is giving Finland a last chance to break away from the Axis and either make a separate peace with Russia or proclaim its withdrawal from the war.

There are strong indications that the sands of time in this government's hour-glass of patience are running extremely low. If Finland fails to make up its mind quickly, possibly within the space of a few days, the United States may sever diplomatic relations with the Helsinki government.

The state department and the Finnish legation denied Stockholm reports that Finnish Minister Pro-cope already has been notified of this government's intention to sever diplomatic relations.

Mileage Ceiling Boosted Outside Eastern Area

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The OPA today lifted the ceiling on mil-age which may be allowed in "course-of-work" driving outside the Eastern area from 470 to 720 miles a month.

The action, OPA said, is intended to help car owners who need more mileage in the course of their work than they have been able to obtain.
It does not change the mileage that now may be allowed for driving between home and work.

John L. Lewis Continues His W.L.B. Defiance

Permits Deadline To Pass Without Complying With
W. L. B. Request

MINERS TO DECIDE POLICY TUESDAY

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, April 26.—John L.
Lewis continued his defiance of the War Labor board today, permitting a deadline to pass without nominating anyone to sit on a tri-partite panel to consider the deadlocked contract controversy at hearings opening Wednesday under aegis of the W.L.B.

Just like he completely ignored a request to appear with bituminous coal operators before the War Labor board in Washington on Saturday.
Lewis remained oblivious to action that federal agency is taking in the critical situation and will let the policy committee of the United Mine Workers decide tomorrow afternoon what policy to pursue.

The policy committee will be called on to decide whether the 450-000 soft coal miners in the country will submit to a new contract with bituminous coal operators or to intervention by the labor board in their wage dispute with the mine operators.

Ignore Requests

So far the miners, under leadership of John L. Lewis, have defied the War Labor board's moves. Lewis ignored an invitation to appear before the board Saturday in Washington and scorned to answer the board's invitation to submit nominations for the Labor Board member of a three-man panel to be appointed to hear the case.

"The policy committee will speak on Tuesday," a labor spokesman said. "Until then there will be no statements."

Meanwhile, in apparent anticipation of the policy committee decision, Ray E. Cummings, president of the Illinois district of the United Mine Workers, ordered the 23,000-union soft coal miners in Illinois to quit work at midnight Friday if a new contract has not been signed by that time.

While refusing to be quoted, a number of mine leaders predicted that the policy committee would affirm Lewis' defiance of the Labor board. These leaders declared the board had prejudiced the miners' case and that the government, including President Roosevelt, has been unfair to the miners.

Record Church Crowds At Services On Easter

Easter crowds that thronged New Castle churches Sunday morning were record-making, not only because of their large numbers, but because of their enthusiastic spirit.
They had come not merely to look on, but to be a part of the Easter services.

There was an unmistakable eagerness to participate in the celebration of Christ's victory and the good familiar Easter hymns sounded full of reverent vigor.

The weather man kept his promise. Although there were a few clouds just before church-time, so that a few precautionary umbrellas were taken along, we observed, the sun had reappeared before noon.

The ladies' smart spring suits and dresses and their crisp new bonnets were displayed to their best advantage. It is only fair to add that the men cut dashing figures in their smart spring suits, too. Those fashionable khaki ensembles were seen in many a New Castle pew.

DENY CLAIMS U. S. CARRIER HAS BEEN SUNK

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 26.—A navy spokesman today flatly denied German propaganda claims that the U. S. aircraft carrier Ranger had been sunk by a U-boat in the north Atlantic.

"Neither the Ranger nor any other U. S. carrier has been sunk or damaged in any ocean," the spokesman said.

The German claims said that a U-boat torpedoed the Ranger while it was escorting a convoy across the middle north Atlantic several days ago.

Damage

NEW DELHI, April 26.—India-based British bombers smashed at railroad marshalling yards at Rangoon, Jap-held capital of Burma,

mand announced today.

tacked enemy troops near Pinbon in the upper Chindwin river valley, while British Hurricanes attacked another concentration of Japanese troops on the Mawu peninsula.
Three enemy trucks were destroyed and hits in a Jap-held village were set afire by the strafing Hurricanes, a communiqué said. All British planes returned safely.

No important changes were recorded in ground fighting in the Araikan area, on the Indo-Burma border, but the communiqué revealed that the Japs have been attacking Field Marshal Sir Archibald Wavell's troops since early yesterday.

Fighting still rages between the

Axis Forces In Withdrawal On 35-Mile Front

Advance By Americans
Forces Axis Retreat In Tunisia Battle

HEAVY ARMORED BATTLES REPORTED

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

ALLIED HEADQUAR-TERS, In North Africa,
April 26.—Front line dispatches today reported trapped Axis forces in Tunisia were accelerating their withdrawal all along an approximate 35-mile line after an advance of more than five miles by hardstriking American forces.

A military spokesman said:

"There is no indication where the enemy will try to make his next stand."

East of Sidi Nsir in northern Tunisia United States troops smashed their way forward for a two-mile gain northeast of Lake Kourzia in a slashing battle against elite
Nazi panzer battalions.

The American units also bit further into the Nazi line with the seizure under heaviest fire, of Diebel Nechet El Maza, three miles east of Ainehouma hill about 14 miles northwest of Mateur.

Nutcracker Maneuver

This operation, combined with the Sidi Nsir advance, represented an effective nutcracker maneuver against the enemy.

The closest point of the Allied approach to Tunis is 25 miles from the Medjel El Bab road. Furious tank engagements continue with undiminished intensity, the battle of armor raging on both shores of Lake Kourzia.

The Nazis are gambling almost all their armor in the lake area to save Tunis with both the tenth and 21st panzer divisions engaged as the rising slashing First Army tanks press for a showdown, hour by hour.

The Allied armored forces are depleting the panzer strength and are supported by infantry in their bid for a break through Pon the Tunisian plain in a northerly direction.

South of the lake the tank battle flared equally violent proportions.
The British held all their positions against the most violent kind of counter-attacks.

Ceiling Prices May Be Higher

O. P. A. Officials Estimate Meat Ceiling Prices In Chain Stores Higher

By PHILLIPS J. PECK

WASHINGTON, April 26.—O. P. A. officials estimated today that the forthcoming dollars-and-cents ceilings on beef, veal, lamb and mutton will average between five and 10 percent higher in the nation's chain stores than the old March, 1942 maximums.

Despite the seeming contradiction of President Roosevelt's order to "hold-the-line" on the cost of living, the new ceilings, which go into effect May 17, will result in an appreciable savings to consumers, the OPA said.

Officials explained that this paradox results from the fact that shoppers recently have been paying exorbitant prices because of the pressure of black market operations and because the old March maximums were not enforceable.

Few stores observed the current ceilings and boosted prices greatly beyond the five to 10 percent increase allowable under the forthcoming regulations. OPA cited one instance where hamburger sold for 44 cents a pound as against a ceiling of 32 cents.

To make certain that housewives know exactly the maximum price that may be charged for a cut of meat, C. H. Fleischer, OPA meat price expert, summoned a meeting today to work out an understandable and easy-to-read poster of ceiling prices. The new regulation requires that these "price bulletins" be posted in every store.

The beef and lamb prices which will go into effect next month represents a considerable reduction from the original dollars-and-cents regulation which was to have become operative April 15.

ground and set numerous fires and explosions in raids on enemy air-dromes.

The Russian high command reported that during the week ending Saturday 381 German planes were downed in combat and on the ground all along the Russian front. Russian losses were 134 planes. An enemy submarine was reported sunk in the Black Sea.

On April 24 alone, the communiqué said, the Red air force destroyed or damaged 30 German motor vehicles loaded with troops and supplies, blew up an ammunition ship, wrecked a railway train and sank two enemy torpedo boats and about 50 barges.

On the western front three block-houses and two dugouts were blown up and 40 Germans killed. West of Rostov 11 blockhouses and dugouts were wiped out by Soviet big guns and mortars and two artillery and three mortar batteries silenced. In one sector German units which had denied the Russian lines were thrown back and 100 Nazi officers and men slain.

Partisan units in Vitebsk province were revealed to have killed nearly two companies of Germans and captured large booty in many days of battles.

"First news of the smashing of a big German tank attack north-west of Kursk" was printed in Red Star, Soviet army newspaper. The account said the Germans attacked with as many as 100 tanks at a time, and at least 55 were knocked out.

Fliers of the Baltic fleet air arm sank a German torpedo cutter.

Deaths of the Day

Mrs. Emma Johnson Lang

Mrs. Emma Johnson Lang, 32 North Beaver street, died in the Jameson Memorial hospital Sunday morning at 12:30 o'clock and being ill for three days. She was the widow of Alonzo M. Lang.

Mrs. Lang was born in New Castle, a daughter of Thomas W. and Mary Berry Johnson. She had been a member of Central Presbyterian church for many years. any of the Allied troops. Before the soldiers of Rommel surrender or are exterminated, the entire operation may take on much of the nature of a siege.

The last Axis battle line may probably be from Bizerte south to Tunis and then east to and including Cape Bon. After this stage of the combat, it may break into the siege of Bizerte and Tunis. It should be remembered that the former city is in reality a great fortress, but the latter is not so strongly fortified.

There have been rumors that Hitler has stopped sending reinforcements and supplies to his troops in Tunisia. This information would be wonderful if true, but it is not wise to believe it until it becomes a proven fact.

It was recently written from North Africa that it should never be forgotten that Hitler could, at any time, instantaneously tremendously reinforce the Axis units engaged in that battle. This is very true. The Fuehrer could move many fighters and bombers from the Russian front, or from Europe itself, to bases in Italy, Corsica, Sardinia, Sicily and Greece.

Just to Thank You and Say We're Sorry

We are truly appreciative of the fine manner in which you and our other friends co-operated over the Easter season in carrying your flowers where it was possible. Due to war time restrictions, our delivery system was impaired, but through your co-operation we were enabled to get deliveries made where it was necessary. We regret we were unable to fill last minute orders. Shortages among growers cut our supply down. These shortages will be increasingly sharp. May we suggest that for other special days, such as Mother's Day, which will be observed May 9th, you place your order early and thus insure the order being filled?

"How old will I be when the war is over, Dad?"

"Why, son, not even President Roosevelt could answer that. But it looks like a long war to me. These bandits are hard to beat. But we're going to get through with it before you grow up, son, and we're going to see that you get a decent start in the world when it's all over."

"I'm earning more money now than I've made in years, but I'm salting away all I can. Mostly in Bonds. United States War Savings Bonds help to pay for the war. And that's only half of it. We are putting this money, away for ourselves—for you—and for your mother and me when we're old. And we're also using this investment to plan for your future."

"Everybody help get this war over quick—the more Bonds you buy—the more weapons"—the quicker we can defeat our enemy—buy Bonds!"

BUY "ATTACK BONDS" THIS WEEK

The average patriotic reader of The News now turning over 10 per cent of his wages in payroll deductions, paying out 10 per cent for income taxes, and having another 5 per cent handed over to him by way of Victory tax deductions—may be wondering how it is going to be possible for him to give any more in the Second War Loan drive to raise another $13 billion by May 1.

Having subscribed his 10 per cent or more, he may have felt that was that, and he wouldn't have to worry any more about making further commitments for the purchase of war bonds and stamps. Having settled that matter to his own satisfaction, he is now in the midst of a campaign to buy still more bonds in the Second War Loan drive, and furthermore, he faces the prospect of a Third War Loan drive late in the summer and maybe a Fourth in early winter, and so on for as long as the war lasts.

Maybe a not-too-thorough job has been done in spelling out the details of where the money is coming from, but the fact is that the money must be raised and it is entirely feasible and also imperative for everyone to buy extra bonds in this Second War Loan drive—in addition to the 10 per cent of payroll already subscribed for continuing war bond purchases.

These 10 per cent deductions are now yielding about $500,000,000 a month, or $6,000,000,000 a year. If you figure that there are 50 million workers in the United States, that averages down to only $10 per month or $120 per year per worker, which not only isn't much, but also isn't enough.

The main argument of the national income economic experts is that the money is available to buy more bonds because, while national income is at $125,000,000,000 a year, there are only $80,000,000,000 worth of goods and services to be purchased, leaving some $45,000,000,000 excess purchasing power to be absorbed as payments on debts, taxes, war bonds and the like, if inflation is to be avoided.

As to the need of extra war bond subscriptions, the Second War Loan $13,000,000,000 goal won't cover the costs of the war for much more than two months, at the current rate of spending. The Second War Loan isn't intended to cover original costs—it's for the upkeep. Second War Loan bonds are "attack bonds." As you walk up to the counter to sign for those extra bond purchases during the remaining days of April, you will be making your contribution toward speeding the creation of a second front in Europe and the launching of a determined drive against the Japanese in the Pacific.

GOTHAM'S FLIGHT

Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York recently appointed a commission to investigate and report on the economic status of New York City generally held to be slipping. The commission has reported, and it does not mince words.

New York City is losing trade at an alarming rate. The burden of taxation, including the city's sales tax, is having a disastrous effect and high assessments militate against industrial expansion. The high state stock transfer tax is driving financial business to other cities. Wages in certain industries in Gotham are higher than elsewhere, a deterrent to the acquisition of new industries.

New York City's output of women's wear is declining, this business coming to other centers in increasing volume. Because of normal emphasis in the metropolis on the manufacture of consumer's goods, little war business has gone to the town presided over by "Butch" LaGuardia. The city's predominately small industries are handicapped by wartime restrictions. The commission's report sums it up:

"Unless effective measures are taken promptly looking toward the aggressive development of business and employment opportunities, New York City may expect to continue to lose ground relative to the rest of the nation in the future as it has in the past."

BRICKER OF OHIO

Governor Bricker of Ohio created much comment with a speech in New York City which gave a preview of his manner of campaigning. The Republicans nominate him for president next year, although he said in address to the Academy of Political Science was not political and he declined to speculate to reporters on his political chances.

Of the future course of the country Governor Bricker said: "We preserve private enterprise and prevent the ills that have attended it. We can help the needy without perpetuating the cause of poverty and we can live in peace or war without destroying the Republic." Continuing, he said:

"We stand in America today at the parting of the ways. There are two roads we can take. One has the mile posts we have passed for three centuries. This road has been built by private enterprise, individual initiative, creative genius, the reward for which is self-reliance and independence. It has been built by a nation of strong individuals, people who realize that the government is theirs, is organized for them, and at the most precious thing in life is the human soul, its capacity for growth and development, for life and service to others. At the end of that road is a nation of free people, helping others, but ever keeping the spirit of the Republic alive.

"The other way is an easy road. It is smooth, just a little bit down below the way so that not much effort will be spent in traveling it. Along this way are false promises of demagogues and dreaming politicians, of ease and rest and Elysian fields, bidding one to always stop and rest. The travelers are encouraged to spend and never save. They are told that they will be taken care of by their government. At the end of this road is the empty shell of what was once a glorious nation."

It is reported, Roumel is to be made commander of all the Axis forces in Italy, he will then be in position to throw "Balcony Ben" to advancing Allied forces.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

HOW JEALOUSY CAN RUIN A CHILD

Jealousy can ruin a child—or adult. On its account some children grow unmanageable and intolerable to live with. The usual efforts at correction rarely work. On the contrary, they may cause the child to grow more jealous and, in consequence, do more bad things.

Unfortunately few parents, even with considerable education, recognize the cause of many problems of behavior. Some parents, indeed, when jealousy is pointed out will refuse to admit its presence. Others, seeing jealousy in the child, don't readily discover ways to reduce it.

Let me add that jealousy can operate in the only child toward certain of his playmates. While jealousy may flare up suddenly in a youngster on arrival of a new baby, it can emerge at any age and continue for a lifetime. Moreover, although it is more often the older of two children who suffers from jealousy, it can occur in either or in both or shift back and forth from one to the other.

A Mother's Problem

"Dear Dr. Myers:—My daughter 3½ years old has been trained to go to bed by herself, never a light on or open door, has a remarkable memory for nursery rhymes, stories and songs. She has always played alone. Now when she gets with other children she pinches or pushes them. When my husband reads the newspaper she pushes it or hits him."

Now with another baby three months old, I'm nearly frantic with her. Tonight she slapped his face so hard he cried pitifully. She will also pinch or push him when I am not looking. My fear now is that she will sometimes really hurt him. I have been tying her to a chair, standing her in a corner and whipping her so hard I'm really giving up. I am enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope."

Doctor's Reply

That child needs to be with children her age more when she should be supervised. Supervise her always when she is with the baby.

Clearly this child supposes the baby is loved more than she is, and her conclusions would be yours or mine in her place.

You must have control of her, of course. But gently reduce commands and punishments, centering on just a few important matters. When she must be punished, assign her to sit doing nothing in a chair where you can see her, for exactly 20 minutes. Spank her if she moves from the chair even an inch before the time is up.

Make less fuss over the baby in her presence and have others do so, too. At any time when she does something nice for Baby, praise her. You and Dad should often take her on the lap, cuddle her, sing to her, talk to her and read to her. Make her feel she is your fine Big Girl.

Solving Parent Problems

Q. What may we parents do to raise the level of music education in the United States?

A. Turn more children who have some musical talent to stringed instruments and require them to practice.

Q. When do you see the end of our appalling crop of juvenile delinquency?

A. When enough babies now in arms trained in the next several years to respect the meaning of NO will reach adolescence.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

Sam Paquin is dead. He died today, and when my time comes, I want to die as beautifully, as peacefully, as easily as he did.

Who was Sam Paquin? You say, "Oh yes, I forgot, newspapermen usually live their lives in anonymity, so you never heard of him."

But to us of the craft, Sam Paquin was the typical newspaperman. Money never meant anything to him.

Didn't he have a nice little home over in New Jersey, with flowers and green grass and trees?

Didn't he have a lovely family? A loyal wife, two devoted daughters and a sturdy son.

Didn't he have books to read, stories to write, memories, reaching way back into the third quarter of the last century, friends and genial associates?

What more could Sam Paquin have bought with a million dollars? Sam was 75 years old but active to the very last minute.

This morning he came to his office, sat down at his desk, put on his glasses, sharpened his pencil and went to work.

At noon he had luncheon with one of his daughters. For his age, he seemed in perfect condition.

At about 3 o'clock Sam Paquin slumped down in his chair. The folks from the neighboring desks rushed over to him.

Sam was unconscious. A doctor was called.

"I'm afraid it's the end," said the physician.

A priest came from a nearby church and administered the last rites.

A few minutes later Sam Paquin died in the ambulance on his way to the hospital.

No pain, no suffering—the end as simple as the closing of a book when the final chapter has been read.

There won't be any monument to Sam Paquin or to the thousands of others who live plainly and inconspicuously, who do their duty and earn their way on this earth by honest, hard and decent citizenship.

But it is people like Sam who have made America what it is today. Well done, good and faithful servant.

Good-bye, Sam, and a pleasant journey.

Inside Washington

Friction Exists Between Germans And Japs
Each Nation Wants Other To Attack America
Distance Proves Big Disadvantage To Both

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Just as Uncle Sam is pretty impatient at Russia for not going to war with Japan—thus distracting the Japs from their southern and southwest-Pacific campaign—so are the Japs fretted by Herr Hitler's delay in swooping down via the air upon New York and Washington, and so does Berlin blame Tokyo's aimlessness for being so slow in a descent upon the American western coastal mainland.

Complaints have been picked up over the radio from both directions. There is a disadvantage to the United States in being threatened from two sides at once.

The threateners' difficulty is that they cannot co-ordinate.

Germany is too busy in the western ocean to bother with Japan. Japan is too fully occupied in its Pacific sphere to raid farther than the extreme Orient, beyond the Alaska tip and the further direction of Britain's Pacific islands and Pacific semi-continental, toward Hawaii and our own continental coast.

It is an inconvenience to the United States to have enemies from opposite points of the compass at once, but it also is an inconvenience to the two arms of the Axis to be split up as to attacks on us.

What Germany wants, manifestly, is a fierce Jap swipe along our Pacific seaboard from Alaska on down, forcing us to concentrate there, tying us up on its side of the Atlantic and on into the Mediterranean. Nippon, correspondingly, would have its hands relatively free to the other side of the conflict.

We are sore on Russia, for not pre-occupying Japan. We are sore on Russia, too, for not enabling us to bother Nippon to the westward. Germany is irritated because Japan is derelict in keeping the latter swamped on ITS side of the global side of the fence. Japan is sore on Germany for not keeping the mikado clear throughout the East.

According to experts, it is largely a question of aviation.

No authority contends that Germany or Japs can effect a landing of consequence on American soil.

What the Japs are expected by the Germans to do is to scare Yankees to death by destructive air raids on big American cities, like Washington, Oregon's, and especially, California's cities. They just want to frighten them.

The figure of that destruction of San Francisco, et cetera, will complete the dirty work.

How local populations in this country, will acquiesce in this program, I have my doubts.

From a lifetime's residence among German-Americans, my hope is that they are as American loyal as any other kind of Americans. From several years' residence in Hawaii, I would gamble on the Japs also.

They act like it, as if they are being assimilated.

Some authorities say Axis air raids on the western hemisphere would boost the hemisphere's solidarity.

It is understandable. They would not amount to much. They would make our western hemisphericals as mad as hatters. Brazil physically wants to get into the war. It has landed troops abroad.

The Brazilians are on the wrong side of the continent to clash with Japan. The western South Americans, though, are eligible.

The Germans' angle of the war is comprehensible, all right. But it does not co-ordinate very well with the Japs'.

They both want to lick us, but they cannot well do it in partnership. Their respective interests conflict.

Germany wants to defeat us at Japan's expense. Japan wants to do it at Germany's expense. And—to hades with the other belligerents—these two are the principal ones.

Air raids on the United States are the nub of Axis strategy.

But they would be awful costly. Japan might pull one off, at its short range, and get its planes home again. Germany could not do it, though. Any planes it sent to the United States must be permanent losses.

The World and the Mud Puddles

WILLKIE'S BOOK

It will be remembered that Wendell Willkie made a trip around the world in an airplane and that he visited North Africa, Egypt, Turkey, Iran, Russia and China and coming home his plane made that great circle sweep over Mongolia, the Bering Straits, Alaska and so back to the place from whence he started.

Now Mr. Willkie has written a book—"One World." There is old saying "all men are different but all husbands are alike." Now this might be paraphrased "all men are different but Presidential candidates are alike." But if you expect that Wendell Willkie has written this book in the manner of Wendell Willkie, erstwhile candidate for President on the Republican ticket, you will be surprised.

This book is written by an intelligent observant lawyer and a successful business man about a trip around the world, and what he saw and heard thereon. If there is a suspicion of a glance toward the hallo box, this reviewer cannot spot it.

What Wendell Willkie saw he knows how to tell about in a manner that is important to all of us. One can only conclude that the powers to be were wise in not allowing him to go to India. For he speaks up for Russia and China in no uncertain terms and does not mince words in saying that neither of them are fighting for the Atlantic Charter. His statement of what they are fighting for may not be news, but it is not often stated as succinctly as he states it.

He is not afraid of words and some of the chapter headings give an idea of how frank he is—Turkey, a New Nation. "Our Ally, Russia." "The Opening Up of China." "What is a War of Liberation?" "Our Imperialism at Home."

Each of these chapters is full of his consciousness that these great peoples are fighting on our side, yes, but more than that, they are fighting for objectives which we do not fully understand or grasp. That we should grasp them and lay our own cards on the table he feels is essential unless we want to have another war on our hands when this one is over.

The difference in point of view he is not avoiding, for he believes firmly that now while we are still at war, these differences must be recognized and reconciled for the good of the future world. The word "freedom" has been too often profaned for us to produce it.

—and he does not shy off from pointing out that imperialism on the part of a high-minded governing country is imperialism just the same; and is utterly incompatible with the word "freedom."

He brings out into the open the inconsistencies, the hypocrisies, which confuse and divide us and alienate our allies.

He does not pretend to have all the answers, but he does not mind saying which ones of those which are being given us seem to him to be the best.

What, we would like to know, makes her "typical?"

VICTORY GARDEN NOTES

(By LEWIS C. DAYTON)
(County Farm Agent)

MULCHING

Soil moisture may be conserved and the weeds kept down in the home garden by using mulches of paper, straw, or strawy manure, leaves, lawn trimmings, and similar materials.

Many home gardeners may make use of this practice with satisfactory results, provided that they do not apply the mulch before the first part of July. A mulch of strawy manure is beneficial, especially for a crop like celery which requires a continuous supply of moisture and very liberal fertilization.

While paper mulches have been used in the past, the cost of the material and less availability at this time render it of less value than other materials which the gardener may have on hand. A mulch of straw or lawn trimmings between the rows of tomatoes will not only control the weeds but will keep the fruit up off the ground, thus resulting in more even ripening of the tomatoes and less damage from rot and insects.

The mulch material should be deep enough to prevent weed growth. With straw, this means a depth of six to eight inches at the time it is applied.

NEW TRIAL REFUSED

In an opinion handed down by Judge John G. Lamore Saturday morning a new trial is refused in the case of C. Belle Tichborne versus Bernice A. Shannon. The case arose out of an agreement between the two whereby Miss Tichborne was to sell a property of the defendant for $8500. Later the price was reduced to $7500. The property was purchased by Edwin O. Feass after he had talked to Miss Tichborne and later talked to Mrs. Shannon. Miss Tichborne contended that she had arranged for the sale but that Mrs. Shannon had sold the property and refused to pay the commission of $375. The jury returned a verdict of $375 for Miss Tichborne and a new trial was asked for by the defendant. The motion was refused.

OCD NOTES

Activities Of OCD Workers
Are Outlined Here

Here is a personal message to the mothers, wives, fathers, brothers, sisters and friends of service men from J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director, who has a thorough understanding of how enemy agents work. He has studied, fought and captured many of them. He says:

"Certain key words will tell you what types of information our enemies are especially anxious to get hold of. Read these key words—study them—remember them."

"Where . . . are our soldiers, ships, planes? (And anti-aircraft guns, forts, gun emplacements, factories, mine fields, harbor defenses?) Where are war weapons manufactured?"

"How . . . are our men going? How are they armed and equipped? How are our planes, tanks, and other weapons made? How well or poorly do they perform? How are they changed in design?"

"When . . . are men going? When will that ship be launched? When does it sail? When will that production job be finished?"

"How many . . . troops, ships, planes, tanks, other weapons, war materials? How many being made? And will be made?"

"What kind . . . of duty is he doing? training is he getting. work is he doing in war production. What kind of regiment is he with, and its name? What's the name of his ship? What kind of ship, plane, is it? What kind of cargo?"

"Of course, that's only a suggestion of the kind of information our enemies need. No list of any kind could be even nearly complete. What would we like to know about our enemies—their men, their training, their location, their plans, their production. Well, that's what they want to know about us."

Can We Talk About Anything?

Of course. Just remember this rule:

If you hear it from someone—don't repeat it.

If you see it yourself—don't repeat it.

But if you read it in newspapers or magazines or hear it on the radio, then it's public property—and you may talk about it. Of course, you mustn't repeat information you read in personal letters.

If you heard from a soldier for example that he was in Liberia, you shouldn't mention it to anyone. But when it's been officially announced—that is, when you read it in the newspapers and magazines or hear it on the radio—why, of course, you can talk about it.

INDIGESTION

Is there some food which does not agree with you? For instance, you eat a pickle, in an hour or two you get sick. You vomit. You feel punk.

We used to call it indigestion. Now we call it allergy. The food is all right. There is nothing at all wrong with it. You may be allergic to any food.

You may be allergic to several foods.

If you are allergic to a food, it will cause you trouble. You may vomit. You may have cramps. You may have diarrhea. You may have hives or asthma. You may get canker sores in your mouth.

If you are absolutely sure which food it is, leave it alone. Do not eat any at all.

There are plenty of other foods to substitute.

Quiet but impressive was the wedding ceremony performed in St. Joseph's church Saturday evening, uniting in marriage Miss Doris Fix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fix, of Delaware avenue, and Charles Brown, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown, of 14 East North street.

Vows were exchanged by the young couple at 6:45 p. m., before a beautifully candle-lit altar, embanked with flowers and ferns. Rev. Fr. John M. Unger officiated, using the single ring service, in the presence of the immediate families.

For her wedding, the bride was lovely in a powder blue ensemble with matching accessories, and a shoulder corsage of white roses and gardenias.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Strobel, cousins of the bridegroom, served as attendants. Mrs. Strobel was attired in a yellow ensemble, with matching accessories, and she wore a shoulder corsage of gardenias and sweetpeas.

Following a buffet wedding lunch was served the immediate families, at a downtown tearoom.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown have dispensed with a wedding trip for the present time, and are residing in their newly furnished home at 318 East Wallace avenue.

Mrs. Brown was formerly employed at the Shenango Pottery company, and Mr. Brown is affiliated with the Bell Bakery company.

Tirre, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Tirre, of 224 Wampum avenue, Ellwood City. Rev. W. Dale Frie officiated with the single ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, M. J. Weber of Jeannette, Pa., wore dusty pink with cocoa brown accessories and a corsage of pink roses and sweet peas.

As matron of honor, the bride had her aunt, Mrs. David M. Penton, who wore a yellow and gray ensemble with navy accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. Mr. Penton served the groom as best man.

Traditional wedding music was played by Elaine Tirre, sister of the groom.

A wedding breakfast at a local tearoom followed the ceremony, after which the bride and groom left for a short trip.

On their return they will be at home at 601 Todd avenue, Ellwood City.

Mrs. Tirre is a graduate of the New Castle high school with the class of June 42 and was an employee of the Shenango Pottery. Mr. Tirre is a graduate of Lincoln high school of Ellwood City with the January 42 class. He is employed at the National Tube company.

LOS ANGELES, April 26—A 56-minute blackout of the Los Angeles area, east of some of the nation's most important war industries, was caused by the detection of targets later identified as friendly, it was announced today.

The blackout was ordered last night by the Los Angeles area air defense wing. The city and its environs soon were plunged into darkness.

Reveals Indians Were Expert At Dice-Shooting

(International News Service)
BERKELEY, Calif., April 26—The noble red men, usually considered the innocent victim of the white man's vices, could have taught his conqueror some interesting variations on one of them—the ancient art of craps shooting.

That is one of the facts unearthed by Dr. Julian H. Steward, of the University of California, in research among the Shoshone Indians of Nevada.

The Shoshones originated their own dice games played with sticks instead of cubes, Dr. Steward found. A refinement in craps shooting was allocation of certain games to men and the restriction of other and presumably more ladylike games to the women of the tribe.

Trial Examiner Makes Findings

N. L. R. B. Examiner Makes Recommendations On Johnson Bronze Co.
Hearing

REPORT GOES TO LABOR BOARD NOW

In an intermediate report made public today by Mortimer Reimer, trial examiner for the National Labor Relations Board, a finding is made in the recent hearing of alleged company interference by the Johnson Bronze company in the affairs of the Bronze Workers' Independent Union and the dismissal of Thelma Bailey an employee of the company.

Mr. Reimer's intermediate findings are summed up in the following recommendations:

"The Johnson Bronze company, its officers, agents, successors and assigns shall 'Cease and desist from

A. Dominating or interfering with the administration of or contributing support to Bronze Workers' Independent Union or with the formation and administration of or contributing support to, any other labor organization of its employees.

B. Establish Independent

"B. Recognizing the said independent as a representative of any of its employees and giving effect to or performing the contract of July 21, 1942 with the Independent, or any extension or renewal thereof, or any other agreements, understandings or arrangements entered into with the Association respecting grievances, rates of pay, hours of work or other conditions of employment.

Following these findings there are a number of others which include a recommendation restraining the company from discouraging membership in the United Automobile, Aircraft and Agricultural Implement Workers of America, Local 69, affiliated with the Congress of Industrial Organizations or in any other labor organization of its employees.

The findings recommend the disestablishment of the Bronze Workers' Independent Union, recommend the rehiring of Thelma E. Bailey with immediate and full reinstatement to her former or substantially equivalent position without prejudice to her seniority or other rights and privileges, and "make whole" Thelma E. Bailey for any loss of pay she may have suffered by reason of the respondent's discrimination against her in regard to her hire and tenure of employment.

The allegations of the complaint, that the company engaged in surveillance, is dismissed.

The finding of Mr. Reimer are not yet final, being for the present merely recommendations. These findings now go to the National Labor Relations Board and at any time within fifteen days, the company may file exceptions and be heard. Should either of the parties to the issue desire a further hearing they must secure permission from the board. It is understood the Johnson Bronze company will file such exceptions and ask to be heard further.

The case came to issue here some two months ago when the United Automobile, Aircraft and Agricultural Implement Workers of America, Local 69, affiliated with the C. I. O. charged the Johnson Bronze company with engaging in unfair labor practices, alleging domination of the independent union. The dismissal of Thelma E. Bailey and not rehiring her as the company did with other employees who had been laid off at about the same time.

Large Attendance Marks Conclusion Of Contest

With practically all of the participating Sunday school registering their highest attendance yesterday, the "Victory" 8-weeks pre-Easter campaign that has been sponsored by the Lawrence County Sabbath School Association, came to a successful conclusion Easter Sunday.

In all the four, New Castle, groups, as well as the districts outside of the city, the contest was closely contested, and in a number of instances, the winners were not known until yesterday's attendances were in.

In the first, New Castle group, the First Presbyterian was the winner for the third successive year. The Third U. P. was second, and their Easter attendance was the highest of the campaign—750. All of the Sunday schools of this group had high percentages, showing good organization and constructive effort.

In the second New Castle group, the First United Presbyterian was the winner with a slight lead over the Mahoning Methodist. In the third New Castle group, the Wesley Methodist was the winner with the Mahoningtown Presbyterian in second place and the Madison Avenue Christian in third place. All the Sunday schools in this group had high percentages.

In the fourth New Castle group, the North Side Community was the winner, closely followed by the Savannah Methodist and the St. John's Lutheran.

In the districts outside of New Castle, in Mt. Jackson district the Edinburg Methodist was first, the Edinburg Christian second, and the Bethel U. P. third.

In Wapahum district the Newport Methodist was the winner with a wide margin. In Ellwood district the Immanuel Evangelical Reformed was first, with the Wurttemberg Methodist not far behind them. In Wilmington district the Volant Presbyterian was first, closely followed by the East Brook Methodist.

In the church attendance contest the Second United Presbyterian Sunday school was the winner. A number of Sunday schools had very high percentages of those that remained for the morning Easter church service. The First Methodist of New Castle reporting that their entire Sunday school attended the morning church service. This is a remarkable achievement and shows splendid co-operation. The Madison Avenue Christian had 93% remain for the Easter church service, and a number of other Sunday schools had their best church percentage attendance yesterday.

Below are given the church and Sunday school percentages.

Awards to the winners will be made at the annual county convention next June.

What While We Are At War—though one cannot help but wonder if it was not hard reading in some quarters. One can only wish that such a style could be met with often. But this reviewer has a justified view from reading publicity releases from government Bureaus. It is not in frivolous mood that this comment is made, but in deep seriousness and in despair at so often being in the Department of Utter Confusion as the "New Yorker" so aptly puts it. We have need for understanding and comprehension in these troublous times. Whether or not one agrees with Wendell Willkie's ideas, he has done a splendid job in saying what he wants to say, which might be the highest praise an author can have.

the wrong ones. Best of all, his book is full of material out of which we may hope to evolve some answers of our own. This one gathers, is the object of the book—for inherent in it is the realization that the fate of the world lies in the minds of men. That he found all over the world a common meeting-ground in the minds of men of all races, is the hope of the future.

Clarity and simplicity are qualities in writing not often come by. If Wendell Willkie seems to have cast off the suavity of the traditional politician, he has gained by it immeasurably. There are no punches pulled in this book, no sentences that leave any doubt as to what they mean.

One can be proud that such a book can find its way to the pub-

Receive 65 Members At Methodist Church

One of the inspiring events of Easter at the First Methodist church was the receiving of 65 new members, in a body, at the morning church service.

This was the result of an intensive evangelistic campaign through the Lenten season, in which the new pastor of the church, Dr. Burr R. McKnight, acted as his own evangelist, conducting old fashioned revival meetings on Sunday nights, holding nine decision day services

In the various departments of the Sunday school, and making many pastoral calls in the homes of the people.

He was ably assisted by the victorious mixed quartet, a gospel team of twelve men, and the organized support of all the church groups.

Aircraft Carrier "Intrepid" Goes Down Ways Today

(International News Service)

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., April 26.—Another giant aircraft carrier—the Intrepid—slid down the ways today on the final stage of its journey to join America's growing fleet.

The new carrier is a sistership to the 25,000-ton Essex and the new Yorktown.

Construction of the vessel was authorized by an act of Congress in June 1940 and the keel was laid December 1, 1941, a week before the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. She is the fourth Navy ship to bear the name.

Sponsor of the Intrepid was Mrs. John Howard Hoover, Washington, D. C. wife of Rear Admiral Hoover, a native of Seville, O., who at one time commanded the carrier Lexington.

According to one survey, color blindness occurs in from three to four percent of all men, and in only 0.3 percent of all women.

Bad Weather Is Aid To Japanese

Allow Enemy To Sneak Reinforcements And Supplies Into Kiska

JOSEPH A. BORS

WASHINGTON, April 26.—A spell of bad weather today provided the Japanese an opportunity to sneak reinforcements and supplies into their base at Kiska, here the enemy has been working feverishly on a new airport.

The Navy's latest communique said that despite inclement weather bombers soared again over the western Aleutians following a lull in America's Pacific offensive which since April 1 has resulted in more than 115 bombing attacks.

No Japanese ships have been reported in the north Pacific since the American warship task force routed a Japanese squadron of cruisers, destroyers and transports several weeks ago.

Blast Jap Positions

Since that time American Army bombers, operating from undisclosed bases in the western Aleutians, have been blasting Japanese positions in virtually non-stop assaults from dawn to dusk.

During the past few days there has been no news of heavy American attacks on Kiska, and the reason for the lull was explained by the Navy when it reported that U. S. Army bombers carried out another assault despite "bad weather".

In the south Pacific there was little change in the military situation as American bombers from Guadalcanal continued their blasting of Japanese positions in the central Solomons. The latest attack was directed at the enemy base at Munda, on New Georgia Island.

The bad weather in the Aleutians may give the Japanese their long awaited opportunity to complete their landing fields on Kiska and Attu from which they may challenge America's aerial supremacy in the north Pacific.

However, the U. S. Army now apparently is operating from secret air fields very close to the Jap-held positions, and Navy men asserted that the Americans were in a position to knock the enemy out of the skies.

Shipbuilding is the No. 1 U. S. steel consumer, taking one out of every five tons produced.

AUTO DRIVER HELD AFTER ACCIDENT

After his car reportedly struck the auto driven by Harry Makarevich, Rigby, policemen George Haeving and H. L. Richards arrested H. B. Russell, R. D. 1. He was examined at police headquarters, and was charged with driving while intoxicated, before Alderman Margaret Orres, Sixth Ward, Russell pleaded guilty, according to Chief of Police Willis G. McMullen, who swore to the charges.

The accident occurred at South Mill and Mainland streets, Saturday night.

Eileen McCormick, who was riding in Makarevich's car sustained minor cuts.

Thirty Enemy Planes Halted By U. S. Airmen

By JOSEPH A. BORS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, April 26.—The navy reported today that its speedy new Corsair fighter planes intercepted 30 Japanese bombers and Zeros 95 miles northwest of Guadalcanal and shot down five enemy aircraft. Two U. S. planes failed to return.
The air battle occurred shortly after four Corsair fighters strafed Japanese installations on Kolombangara island in the central Solomons.
The navy said that the same group of four Corsairs attacked the 10 Japanese bombers and 20 Zeros fighters 95 miles from Lunga Point, on Guadalcanal island.
"During the aerial combat which followed five Zeros were shot down," the navy said. "Two U. S. planes failed to return."
The enemy planes apparently were intercepted while enroute to bomb America's Henderson airfield on Guadalcanal. The navy failed to state whether any of the Japanese completed their mission.

Bermuda Conferees Seeking Compromise On Refugee Housing

British Favor Use Of Concentration Camps, But Americans Disagree
By LEE CARSON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

HAMILTON, Bermuda, April 26.—Revival of plans to temporarily house European war refugees in North Africa appeared likely today as the Anglo-American refugee conference discussed a possible compromise of differences of opinion on the subject.

The British delegation is known to favor use of concentration camps formerly occupied by French and Spanish political prisoners. But American delegates fear public opinion would revolt at the idea. The Americans also are known to oppose any action that might interfere with North Africa military operations.

However, Dr. Harold Willis Dods, president of Princeton University and head of the American delegation wants no door closed to possible rescue of refugees from Axis-held territory. He said the American delegation has been ordered to draw up a report to Washington on unsettled issues.

One of these is the proposal to widen the scope and powers of the inter-governmental committee to make it a permanent refugee relief agency. The British are understood to favor setting up a new organization in which neutral nations, as well as the United Nations, would be represented.

Passover Holiday Will End Tuesday

Closing Days Of Holiday To Be Observed With Prayers At Tifereth Israel Synagogue

Passover, the holiday of freedom, is now being observed by the Jewish world over and today ushers in the seventh day of this holiday. This holiday commemorates the first fight for freedom of religion won by the children of Israel from the Pharaohs, and regular holiday services were conducted at the Tifereth Israel synagogue Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock by Rabbi Gilbert A. Elefant. Special services were also conducted Sunday morning at 9 o'clock and this morning at 8 o'clock at the synagogue.

Tuesday morning, special memorial services will be conducted for the soldiers wounded in battle, for those who have given their lives, and for the soldiers "missing" in action. Special prayers will also be given for the success of the government in the war effort. A message will be heard from Rabbi Milton H. Elefant of New Rochelle, N. Y. His topic will be "Looking Backward."

"New Castle's Oldest Cleaners"

A VITAL LAST APPEAL TO THE CITIZENS OF NEW CASTLE

This is the last week of the Second War Loan Campaign. At least Thirteen Billion Dollars must be raised by America this month to carry the war to the Axis and to fight inflation. NEW CASTLE WILL DO ITS SHARE! But you must help! This isn't a job for the banker, it isn't a job for the industrial worker, it isn't a job for the merchant. It's everybody's job! It's the job of every American who wants the Nazis and Japs crushed, and crushed quickly. In other words, IT'S YOUR JOB! Do it now!

Perhaps you haven't been solicited. The best possible organization cannot insure that everyone is called on personally. DON'T WAIT FOR THE SOLICITOR TO COME AROUND. Go to your bank or other bond-selling agency and buy your bonds now. Not tomorrow, next week or next month, but now!

What Kind of Bonds to Buy?

If you want advice on what to buy, go to your banker. ALL TYPES OF BONDS COUNT IN THIS CAMPAIGN! But they won't count if you wait until next week. If you can't get down to the bank, call Bond Headquarters, Phone Number 879, and ask someone to call at your home.

Do Payroll Savings Bonds Count?

Yes, if they're paid up this month. Thousands of workers are subscribing 10% every month. That's fine! It may be the limit of your ability to buy. But it will take extra purchases this month to put the drive across. If you have some money saved, there's no better place for it than in War Bonds. So go after that 10%—but in addition BUY AN EXTRA BOND THIS MONTH!

Should I Buy the Bonds at Work?

Buy bonds wherever and whenever you can. House-to-house canvassers are endeavoring to call at every home in Lawrence County this month. Some plants are putting on a special "Buy-an-extra-bond-this-month" drive. But your dollars will fight the Nazi fiends and Japanese murderers wherever they are bought. Who gets credit for selling the bonds doesn't make any difference when this money is used to win the war. So buy bonds—from your home solicitor, from your employer, or from your bank. But do it now.

Do Stamp Purchases Count?

Not unless the stamp book is filled and converted into a bond this month. So get that stamp book out, buy the stamps needed to fill it, and take the book to a bond issuing agency before the end of the month. Send it to school with your children or take it to a bank or post office.

Do Pledges Count in the Drive?

Only bonds actually purchased for cash during the month count in the drive. If you have made a pledge to buy, go to the bank which you designated and redeem the pledge by buying the bond. New Castle and Lawrence County's total will be based on bonds actually bought and paid for in April at banks or bond selling agencies. If you gave your pledge, go down and make it good now. Lawrence County has never failed to beat its quota on war bonds. Let's keep that record clean by going over the top in this Second War Loan.

Count Fleet Not To Run; Field Is Set

Ocean Wave Among Eligibles Listed; Seven Hearts Is Entered

FLEET DOESN'T NEED EXTRA RACE

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 26.—Only one test remained today that might change the opinion of the great majority of racing fans that Count Fleet will gallop home an easy winner in the $75,000 added Kentucky derby next Saturday at Churchill Downs.

That will be the derby trial tomorrow at one mile, but the co-trainer, Mr. John Hertz, having demonstrated decisively that he is ready for the big race in his previous performances this year, will decline the issue in this time-up.

Ocean Wave Set

The derby trial field will be made up from among these eligibles:

Warren Wright's Ocean Wave, which by many is expected to give Count Fleet its stiffest contention in the derby, W. E. Boone's Slide Rule and Twosies, J. Graham Brown's Seven Hearts, which did a brisk mile workout in 1:42 3/4 Saturday although supposed to have a broken bone in the right forefoot, Eddie "Rochester" Anderson's Burn Cork, Mikky Way's No Wrinkles, Hal Price Headley's Crest, Big Boss, owned by Farrell and Devereaux, Bankrupt, owned by Townsend B. Martin, and possibly one or two others.

Dr. Edward M. Lang, Jr., veterinarian, expressed surprise at Seven Hearts' workout and the fact he still was being pointed toward the derby. He said:

"I have taken two X-rays of his foot and both clearly show a fracture. The last one showed a wider fracture surface."

Nevertheless Trainer W. G. Sparks, continued working out the colt in dead earnest.

Fleet Can Prove He's Miracle Hoss By Capturing Derby

Nation's Winter Books Will Take It On Chin If Count Fleet Wins

THOSE SURE THINGS SOMETIMES FIZZLE

By LAWTON CARVER

International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, April 24.—On Saturday Count Fleet will prove that he is another miracle horse (and just about bust all the winter books) or he will be living, breathing, four-footed proof that people who establish sure things in sports would be better off saving their pennies, if any, and thinking of their blood pressure.

If he blows the Kentucky Derby, screams of anguish will be a terrible thing to hear. Big robust, able-bodied men will tear out their hair with frustration, determined never again to make a horse bet—especially on a cinch.

What makes a horse or an athlete a cinch, by the way?

Like recently a fellow walked into the sports department, and plugging me against the wall, with an all-knowing stare said:

"Are you a horse-better?"

A Sure Thing?

"I'm a better-bill payer, a rent-payer, a doctor-bill payer, a dentist-payer, an income tax payer, and a man with family obligations," I said.

"Don't be a sucker all your life," he said. "I'm giving you something. Go put all that rent money, and then other obligations on Five-O-Eight in the last at Jamaica. This is a cinch that will pay 20 to 1—a cinch."

He was so sure about this one, a tip right from the guy that knew the guy, etc.

Casualty I picked up a paper and found that Five-O-Eight stumbled on the first turn, nearly unseated his rider and ran dead just all the way.

I guess the moral of this is that the surest thing is that sure things aren't. That goes for Count Fleet and all the rest, not saying that Count Fleet won't win the Derby, mind you. He may and he probably will, but if that makes him a cinch everybody who follows sports should be a millionaire—especially sports writers who are supposed to be in the know. Yet most of us know so little that we are in worse shape than Joe Blow down the block, who doesn't know anything.

It was only a week last Saturday that Count Fleet was a dead certain sure thing in the Wood Memorial race, and he died with a bleeding leg. Had the flailing hoof of Vincent hit the Count, mere inches higher or ounces harder a sure thing would have taken a good sound thrumming.

Hard To Understand

There is another thing about horses. Very few people can understand what they are talking about and, therefore, it is usually impossible to tell when a horse feels good or is in no mood for running. The Count likes to run, has a champion's heart, and speed, but Derby Day he may feel like looting.

BETTY JAMESON SUFFERS DEFEAT

TAMPICO, Mex., April 26.—Twice national women's golf champion Betty Jameson, has been defeated in the finals of the Tampico County club tourney by Mrs. Estelle Davy, 6 and 5.

WHEELING, W. Va., April 26.—Jack Croghan, 84, a baseball star before the "big league" era, died yesterday. He saw action as a professional star in the Iron Ore circuit, Texas league, Iowa loop and in the Central league.

Sports Ramblings

Monday's sports wash:—

With one aim in mind—to prevent the City Baseball league from hanging the "closed" placard—Paul McCullough, whose diamond career stretches way back to the other till, offers to assume full responsibility for fielding a team, provided someone bankrolls the outfit. "Fans need baseball this year. I for one, will do anything to keep the ball rolling. I'll take full responsibility for putting a team on the field—without any financial returns to me—if someone will sponsor a team," the veteran pitcher said today.

Major D'Orrmond "Tuss" McLaughry, a Titan grid star back in 1912, 1913 and 1914 and coach at Brown and Dartmouth before entering the armed forces, now has complete charge of the physical fitness program at the Marine Barracks, Parris Island, S. C. And Lt. Louis Pereseny, another Westminster product, is setting up one of the finest physical training programs at Napier field, Alabama.

Exchanged pleasantries over the week-end with Frank Babiarz, who is stationed in Dahlgren, Texas. The south sider started on Ne-Ca-Hi's grid elevens during the fog end of the 20's. "Bill" Pelto, Dick DeArment, Felix Skuta, Paul Johnson and Henry Johnston, athletic stars at Bensinger high during the past five or six seasons, now are carrying the ball for Uncle Sam.

Short stuff—What's causing this "shutout plague" the players or the balls? The new "hyped" rabbit ball due to arrive within the next two weeks, will tell all. And won't the luff be on the big leaguer, if the twirlers continue to shoot those eggs? May 8 will just about seal Cincinnati's pennant hopes. That's the tentative induction date for Johnny Vander Meer, the famous southpaw.

Roberto Estalella remains the fact that he has spent the past eight seasons with teams down under the second division. Now that he's with the Athletics, he's lead pipe cinch to keep the record intact. "Bill" Lee is extremely close when it comes to dishing out home run balls. He yielded only four in 220 innings in '42, an average of one every 55 frames....

GENTRY HURLS

4TH NO-HITTER

(Special To The News) NEWARK, N. J., April 26.—For the fourth time in his professional career, Rufus Gentry, now pitching with the Buffalo Bisons, has marked a no-hit no-run game. The 25-year-old ace tossed the perfect game against Newark, an 11 inning 1-0 win, yesterday in an International league fray. He pitched three identical classics in a two-year stretch with Winston-Salem.

P. S. The current "dead" ball was in use.

RAMSDALL HARD TOILING HURLER

Pitchers with sturdy backs and steel arms are in great demand this season. So don't be surprised if there's a scramble for James Ramsdell, now with Montreal.

Twirling big springs in 1940, Ramsdell chucked 351 innings. He followed in 1941 in the California circuit with another back-breaking performance and last season labored in the Western Association. All told, he has worked 909 innings in three seasons.

His record shows 68 victories, an average of 20 or more wins a campaign. He weighs 160 pounds and twirls from the right side. His long suit is a knuckle ball.

Ruffin Is Favored To Beat Hutchinson

(International News Service) PHILADELPHIA, April 26.—Bobby Ruffin, fast-stepping son of Teddy Hubbs, ruled a 7-5 favorite today to beat North Philadelphia's Johnny Hutchinson in their 10-round meeting at the Arena tonight.

Ruffin, who expects to scale in at 134 pounds, will probably hold a two pound edge on the little Negro, whose last encounter ended in a draw with Maxie Shapiro. The battle should be a duel of left-handed leather, as both Bobby and Hutch have been noted for potent lefts.

Dusky Ellis Phillips of Philadelphia faces Jimmy Hatcher, Florida coast guardsman in a 10-round semi-rounder.

Pitt-Duke Grid Clash Postponed

PITTSBURGH, April 26.—The Pitt-Duke football game scheduled for Durham, N. C., next October 2 has been cancelled by mutual consent. Athletic Director Jimmy Hagan announced today, and added the Panthers would try to fill the open date with a school closer to Pittsburgh.

It is believed the cancellation opens the way for a renewal of grid relationships with the West Virginia Mountaineers, the only other team in the Pittsburgh district available as Penn State and Carnegie Tech are already on the schedule and Duquesne has given up intercollegiate sports for the duration.

FANNINS PLANNING FOR COMING SEASON

Fannins baseball team, a member of the American Legion Junior League, will have a meeting at the Lehigh baseball field Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock, when the team will get started on plans for the coming season. Players 17 years of age and under wishing to tryout must report at this time.

Uniontown Boys Ready For Bouts Here Wednesday

Fayette County Boxers Have Always Fought Consistently Here

NATIONALLY KNOWN FIGHTER ON DOCKET

Many amateur bouts have been held here during the past several years and, in no instance, has a fighter from Fayette county failed to please with his stock in trade and when Wednesday night arrives Clyde Jenkins, Eddie Kemeiz, Wilbur Thomas and Buddy Harrison, a quartet of Uniontowners hope to uphold the reputation set by their predecessors here. Jenkins is carded to battle Chris Tabor, Niles' mid-weight slugger. The bouts, eight in all, are being held by city police to benefit their pension fund.

No doubt the Jenkins-Tabor scrap will be the most exciting of the evening. Jenkins, fought into the semifinals in the National A. U. tournament, reached the semi-finals before being "brushed out." Tabor recently captured a decision from Roy Crews, Lawrence county middleweight champion then went on to win the Youngstown K. of C. 160-pound title.

Joe Ramey, a youth of Niles who is yet in high school, was voted the McKelvey trophy for being the "most promising" fighter in the Youngstown tournament. He will box Norm Sweeney of Youngstown. Eddie Kemeiz, Uniontown, will tackle Rayburn Nulph of Pulaski at 140. Wilbur Thomas, another Uniontown, will fight Emil Canale of this city at 125. Chuck Nulph, also of Pulaski, regarded as the best of the Fighting Nulphs will oppose Eddie Thompson, a rugged Youngstown lightweight.

Al Werden of Niles, a consistent performer here, will oppose Joe Kupper of Youngstown at 165 and Verne Nulph, another Pulaskian, will swap punches with Nick McGlade of Youngstown at 118. Police are disposing of a large number of pasteboards. Seating arrangements for 1,500 have been made. Indications are the bout will result in the Arena being filled. The first fight will start at 8:30 p. m. Reservations may be secured at Police headquarters now.

THEY PLAY ROUGH

After the spirited football game last week, six participants were on sick call the following day.—Randolph Field "Rookie."

Each Have Three

The Red Sox, Indians and White Sox and Tigers each can come up with three guys who touch the platter from the right side. Al Olson, up from San Diego, is highly rated by the Sox, while the Tigers are proud of Stub Overmire.

The White Sox can point to Edgar Smith, baseball's tough luck pitcher; Thornton Lee, hampered last season by a lame arm, and Jake Wade.

The Yankees pack an ace in Maris Russo, reportedly in trim following the 1942 campaign which saw the southpaw spend most of the time on the bench. Tom Bryne, a top ranking star in the International league last year, is a classy southpaw twirler.

Rockie Mack's Athletics boast of Rokie Talmade, Abernathy and Herman Bessie.

In the National, the Braves have "Lefty" Gomez, for years a mainstay on the Yankee staff.

Vandy, Hubbell Tops

Carl Hubbell of the Giants and Johnny Vander Meer of Cincinnati and now preparing to join the armed forces, rank as two of the smoothest in the circuit. Tom Sumkel and Cliff Melton are Hubbell's backstoppers. Vander Meer, the Reds have Clyde Shoun.

Louis Tost, constantly improving, hurls for the Braves and is being press agented as one of the best in the N. L. Howie Pollett and Ernie White, two more crack pitchers, wear St. Louis Cardinal monkey suits. Pittsburgh is giving Lefty Wally Herbert a chance. He's 35. The Dodgers are represented by Max Macon while the Phils have Al Gerhauser.

Mt. Lebanon Grabs Connellsville Relay

CONNELLSVILLE, April 26.—Mt. Lebanon high annexed the annual Connellsville WPIAL relay honor here on Saturday.

The Mounties piled up 48 1/2 points with one of the best balanced track squads in the district.

CARRYING A MESSAGE TO--GHQ

AS A SCHOOLBOY IN SUMMIT, N. J., Pte. Roy T. Pease, Jr. was a sprint champion. Last year he held the state title in the 100 and 220-yard dashes. When regular Army transportation is lacking at Camp Polk, La., Pease, liaison agent in a reconnaissance squad there, warms up those legs of his and off he goes. (International)

Cincinnati Loses Mike McCormick

Joins Armed Forces Soon; Catcher Ray Mueller Splits Finger

CINCINNATI, April 26.—Cincinnati's pennant hopes received another setback yesterday when catcher Ray Mueller suffered a split finger on his throwing arm and Mike McCormick, centerfielder, played his last game for the duration.

McCormick, a top ranking player, has left for his California home to spend a few days before joining Uncle Sam's forces.

Lefty Pitching Crop Is Rich

Southpaws Not On Big League "Ration List"; Brownies Have Four

Unlike past seasons when southpaws seemed to be on the "ration list," the majors are beautifully supplied with leftsiders this year.

Cleveland, Chicago, Boston and Detroit have enough lefties. St. Louis, in the American league, is practically loaded. Al Hollinsworth, who won 10 and lost six; Fritz Ostermeier; Archie McKain and Bill Semosh det the Brownies' southpaw roster.

The Red Sox, Indians and White Sox and Tigers each can come up with three guys who touch the platter from the right side. Al Olson, up from San Diego, is highly rated by the Sox, while the Tigers are proud of Stub Overmire.

Kraus Spanks Brooklyn, 3-2; Pirates Cop, 6-2

"Rip" Sewell Maintains Hoodoo Over Cubs; Indians Divide Bill

BRAVES YANKEES ON WINNING SIDE

By JOHN CASHMAN

NEW YORK, April 26.—Major League baseball, after stumbling awkwardly into the national scene under the triple burden of bad weather, small crowds and the dead ball, has at last come to life. And nowhere has it sprung into action more vividly and forcefully than in the beleaguered ranks of the so-called phillie Phillies.

Under the remorseful brow of Dodger President Branch Rickey, who broke a lifelong precedent to see his first Sunday ball game, a Dodger scout, Jimmy Jack Kraus, started scotch ball to another Brooklyn and give the Phillies their first 1943 victory by a 3 to 2 score. Had it not been for three infield errors, Kraus would have whitewashed Brooklyn.

Buccos Win 6-2

In addition to witnessing his club's defeat, Rickey also watched helplessly while two of his more valuable possessions, outfielder Dixie Walker and pitcher Curt Davis, were forced out of the game by injuries.

Trusty Rip Sewell, of the Pittsburgh Pirates maintained his hoodoo over the Chicago Cubs, whipping them for the second time 6 to 2. Both teams collected 10 hits, but Pittsburgh knocked three Cub hurlers out of the box. Len Warneke started scotch ball to Ed Hargerski in the third, Dick Barry relieving in the sixth and Ray Prim in the eighth.

While Hank Borowy held the Boston Red Sox to nine hits, the New York Yankees, battling hard and even, smothered the Reds with a 7 to 1 victory.

The New York Giants used four pitchers against the Boston Braves, but were strangled 8 to 3.

Nats Cop Twice

To strongly support the theory that not only the game, but the ball therein, is at last alive, the Washington Senators behind Dutch Leonard's eight-hit hurling plastered the Philadelphia Athletics for 19 hits to win 12 to 2. This lap-side score was produced in the first inning, but although Washington outscored the Athletics 10 to 0, it was its fourth straight triumph, having pitched three similar classics in a two-year term with Winston-Salem in the Redmont League where one "Dewey" Coen, veteran hurler and now game protector for Lawrence County.

Andrew Dodds, president of the Lawrence County sportsmen's Association, reported today that a nice crowd of volunteers turned out Saturday to help the Boy Scout troops plant red pines, each four years old, at the association grounds near the Harbor.

Oink-Oink's Landing After Daring Attack Is Tricky Business

Operations Operator At Australian Field Posed By Question On Monkey-Wrench

By FRANK ROBERTSON

SOMEWHERE IN AUSTRALIA, April 26.—Dusk was swiftly falling over an air strip somewhere in Australia's northwest when the first big Liberator bombers came roaring back from a daring attack on an enemy base at Kendari in the Celebes, 1,500 miles away.

The plane under the strip slowly as it approached for a landing—then something was seen to drop from the ship's belly. It was a monkey wrench with this message attached.

"My left alleron is inoperable, its cable shot in two. My left tire is flat. Anything may happen. Should I wait for the other ships to get back before I land? Hopefully yours, Oink-Oink."

Here was a real problem for the operations operator. If the Liberator named Oink-Oink landed on the strip and crashed landing, the other planes might be delayed for hours. On the other hand, if the big aircraft had managed somehow to stagger back to its base—out how long could it stay aloft?

But Intelligence Officer Lieut. Roger Kenney of Grand Rapids, Mich., didn't waste time. "Come on in, Oink-Oink—good luck!" he belted via radio.

And Oink-Oink came in—under the capable guidance of Lieut. Paul Johnson of Four Oaks, N. C. The big bomber faltered only slightly when the flat-tired wheel hit the ground. The big ship silted to a safe stop.

Lieut. Gen. McNair Seriously Wounded

Lieut. Gen. Ben Lear To Take Over Temporary Command Of Army Ground Forces

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Lt. Gen. Ben Lear, commander of the Second army with headquarters at Memphis, Tenn., today was under orders to report to Washington immediately to take over temporary command of the army ground forces from Lt. Gen. Lesley J. McNair who was seriously wounded Friday on the Tunisian front.

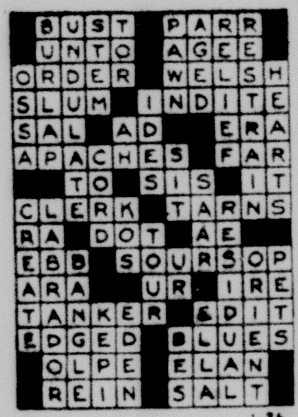

Following a brief war announcement that McNair had been wounded, Col. R. Ernest Dupuy, chief of the department's public relations bureau, said in a regular weekly army broadcast that the general was "wounded seriously" during American occupation of Djebel Ainchouma on the northern Tunisian front.

One of the nation's ablest and most distinguished military leaders, Gen. McNair was on an inspection tour of the American striking force in Tunisia when he was wounded. The general has been largely responsible for the training of these American soldiers and for preparing hundreds of thousands of civilian soldiers in this country for eventual combat overseas.

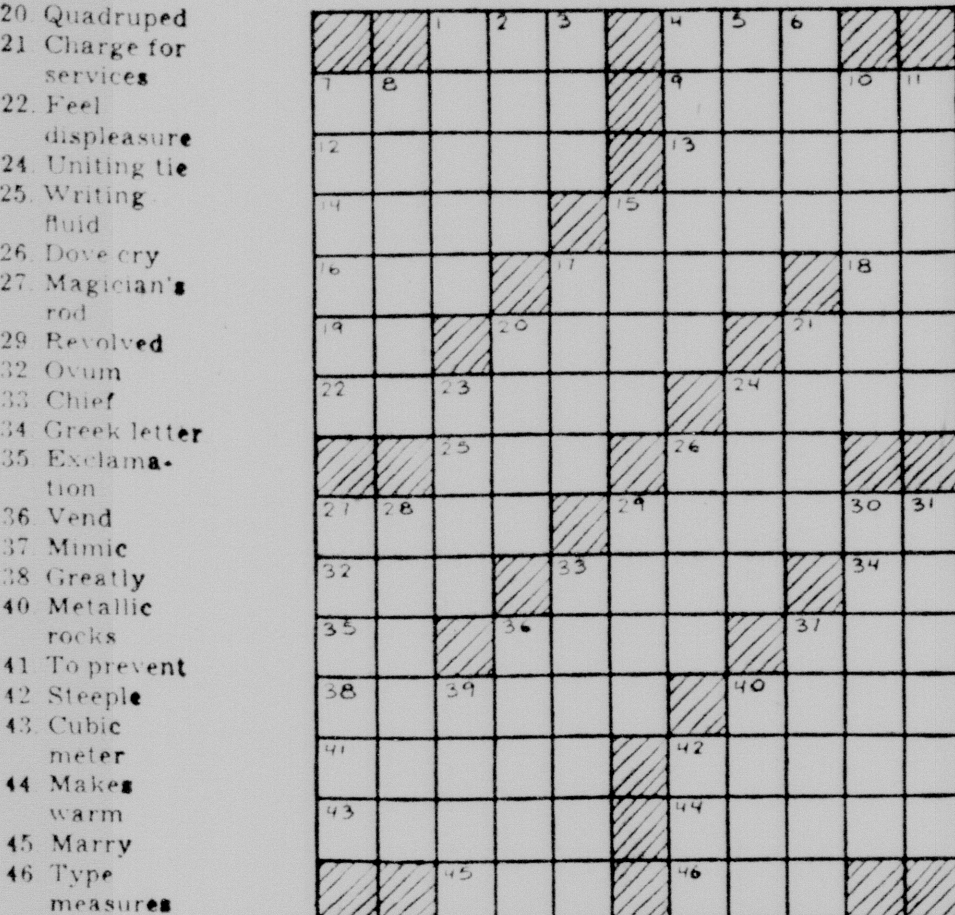

Roosevelt approves visit of senators to battlefronts. He'd probably be enthusiastic if he could pick the senators.

Doolittle Ferry Plane Carried 72

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, April 26.—Maj. Gen. James H. Doolittle, ferried to Calcutta India, two weeks after bailing out in China following his famous raid upon Tokyo, expressed the opinion that he would "rather have gone back the way I came" upon learning of the overburdened ferry plane he rode from Chungking, Pan American Airways system revealed today.

When the 21-passenger transport landed at Myitkya, Burma, to pick up Pan American and Chinese personnel and rifle and machine gun fire from Japanese entrenched in the hills Doolittle, anxious to get an important report to Washington, was astonished to find that refugees had increased the passenger list to 60. He shouted to Capt. Moon Chin of the Chinese Army, the pilot, that "I hope you know what you are doing."

Upon landing at Calcutta Doolittle received a new shock when he learned the plane disgorged 72 persons, including the crew, eight additional passengers having stowed themselves secretly in a rear mail compartment.

BOY CUTS FINGER

“Three Cheers For Army” Are Given By New Castle Widow

Mrs. Anna Cheers Has Sent Two Daughters In WAAC, Son As Army Captain

“Three Cheers for the army” were translated factually for a New Castle widow when her second daughter enlisted in the Women’s Army Auxiliary Corps Saturday at the Pittsburgh recruiting station. The third Cheers, Helen H. daughter of Mrs. Anna Cheers, 19 East Laurel avenue.

Mrs. Cheers’ daughter, 27-year-old Frances, has just completed basic training at the First WAAC Training Center, Fort Des Moines, Ia., and is awaiting assignment to a hospital unit. The brother-in-law in the army is Captain Walter H. Cheers, a veteran of World War I, who is attached to the Army Service Command of Great Falls, Mont. Captain Cheers served overseas in an airplane mechanic in the last war.

The two teenage Cheers in the WAAC had both been employed in dental work. Helen as dental assistant to a Pittsburgh dentist and Frances as a dental clerk and stenographer in Seattle, Wash. Captain Cheers was a lawyer in private life and made his home in Dayton, Tenn. He was also holder of a private pilot’s license.

Helen is the youngest of a family of ten children. She is a graduate of New Wilmington high school and attended Slippery Rock college. Of the four brothers and three sisters in civilian life, three of the brothers are employed in defense plants.

She also has four nephews, three Cheers and a Shaffer, serving with the armed forces. Twenty-two-year-old Harold Cheers has just been commissioned as a second lieutenant in the Army Air Forces at graduation exercises last Friday at Victoria Field, Tex. He has been in the service almost three years.

The other two Cheers brothers, all of whom are natives of Butler, are serving somewhere in the Pacific area. Sergeant J. Walter, 24, is with an anti-aircraft division and Private First Class Kenneth, is with the Marine Corps. Ensign Frank Shaffer, Morgantown, W. V., the fourth nephew, is stationed with the navy at Southport, N. C.

Helen hopes to continue in dental work in the Women’s Army Auxiliary Corps in view of the urgent need for dental technicians. Only one of more than 100 classifications for WAAC candidates. She will leave for a training center sometime next month.

Two Boys Drown On Holiday Hike

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Pa., April 26.—Two teen-aged brothers were drowning victims today of a combination Easter holiday hike and swim.

After tramping in the sun for a while, Raymond Byers, 13, and his younger brother, James, 12, of Washington, reached Charters creek, a six-foot stream near Arden yesterday, where Raymond tossed off his clothing and plunged in for a refreshing dip.

Apparently the chilly waters gave the older boy cramps because he soon cried out for help and James dove in to his rescue. However, the second youth was caught in the swirling waters also and both went down before aid could be summoned.

Two hours later, both bodies were recovered by firemen. They were the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Byers, parents of seven other sons.

Striking U. M. W. Coal Miners Reject Appeals To Return

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, April 26.—Nearly three thousand striking United Mine Workers at four Republic Steel corporation captive coal mines and one Weirton Steel company pit today flatly rejected all appeals to return to work pending arbitration of their grievances. And it was feared the walkouts might spread throughout western Pennsylvania.

Joseph Yablonsky, international representative of district 5, U. M. W., said his men were in no mood to listen to suggestions that they resume work pending outcome of federal conciliation.

He admitted a serious stumbling block to attempts to end the strikes was the deadlocked contract negotiations between the bituminous coal operators and John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers.

Yablonsky disclosed that heads of 31 mine locals had informed him by telegram that it was highly unlikely the rank and file members of the union would report for work today.

He admitted a serious stumbling block to attempts to end the strikes was the deadlocked contract negotiations between the bituminous coal operators and John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers.

Nazis Draft 100,000 Norwegian Workers

(International News Service) LONDON—It is estimated that about 100,000 laborers and office workers have been drafted to work for the Germans in Norway. In addition to these there is an unknown number of foreign laborers and prisoners of war working for the Germans. The drafting of Norwegians continues.

People employed on Oslo newspapers have been warned to be ready to leave for German construction projects on short notice. From “Aftenposten” 50 men have already been taken. This included members of the mechanical and office staffs as well as the editorial.

Reichscommissar Josef Terboven has issued a new decree limiting the right of Norwegian workers to change jobs or employers. It is said that the purpose of the decree is to “guarantee continuous work.” If a worker and his employer cannot agree, the case must be referred to Terboven who, according to the decree, will take into consideration the “war-economic aspects of the worker’s qualifications.”

Fines and imprisonment are promised all who do not obey.

Germany Claims U. S. Carrier Sunk

(International News Service) LONDON, April 26.—A special German high command communiqué claimed today that a Nazi U-boat had sunk the ten-year-old American aircraft carrier Ranger in the North Atlantic.

The carrier was said to have been protecting trans-Atlantic shipping lanes.

The communiqué added that the undersize raider’s commander, identified as Capt. Von Bulow, had been decorated by Adolf Hitler for his success.

The Ranger, launched Feb. 25, 1933, was designed to carry a complement of 1,788 men, including airmen.

(The Navy department in Washington had no comment to make on the Axis claim.)

New Change In Tire Sales Plan

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Motorists whose gasoline ration cards permit them to drive over 240 miles a month will become eligible for the best grade of tires May 1.

This was disclosed in an Office of Price Administration order, coincident with news that manufacture of lower-quality “victory tires” made from reclaimed rubber has been halted.

Previously a mileage ration of 560 a month had been required for the best tires and a mileage of 240 to 560 for grade II’s.

Weekly Meat Ration Plan Will Continue

(Special To The News) WASHINGTON—Meat ration coupons will be used in May on the same weekly accumulative basis as in April, the OPA announced on Saturday. This means that all E, F, G, H and J red stamps in ration book two are good until May 31, with the E series valid starting yesterday, the F starting next Sunday, May 2, and so on.

Officials hope to put meat rationing on a monthly basis eventually, to allow housewives more leeway in planning and to enable them to purchase high point roasts and hams more easily than on the weekly system.

In Italy, leather for shoes is available only in small quantities. It is reported. Both men and women are wearing shoes made of artificial leather, cloth, fiber, straw or wood. Many women’s shoes, despite this handicap (possibly because of it), are being made in a variety of new colors and styles.

IF FUSES ‘BLOW OUT’

Trace the Cause and Disconnect Appliance

REPLACING FUSES IS VERY SIMPLE — HERE’S HOW:

Find the main switch at your meterbox and standing on dry surface, turn off electricity.

Remove “blown out” fuse—touching only its top. You can tell it by “burned” patch in window on top of fuse.

Replace with one of the same size which is clearly marked on fuse. Reclose main switch.
